

Genesis 43

Verse 1-5

Now the famine was severe in the land. ² So it came about, when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go back, buy us a little food.” ³ Judah spoke to him, however, saying, “The man sternly warned us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ⁴ If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. ⁵ But if you do not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”

Judah spoke to him, however, saying, “The man sternly warned us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

When the food ran out Jacob wanted his sons to return to Egypt but he still wanted them to go without Benjamin

It seems that Reuben was no longer willing to take the leadership role on this second trip to Egypt

Perhaps his pledge to Jacob, that he could slay his two sons if he did not bring Benjamin back, was no longer worth the risk

However, Judah, like Reuben, would not face “the man” without Benjamin

Verse 6-10

⁶ Then Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly, by telling the man whether you still had another brother?” ⁷ But they said, “The man specifically asked about us and our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ So we answered his questions. Could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’” ⁸ So Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy with me and we will arise and go, so that we may live and not die, we as well as you and our little ones. ⁹ I myself will take responsibility for him! You may demand him back from me. If I do not bring him back to you and present him to you, then you can let me take the blame forever. ¹⁰ For if we had not delayed, surely by now we could have returned twice.”

⁶ Then Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly, by telling the man whether you still had another brother?”

Has Jacob forgotten that his sons were being accused of being spies?

Answering in a dishonest way could have jeopardized their lives

Jacob isn't being practical or fair to his sons

I myself will take responsibility for him!

Judah offered himself as security for the youngest brother.

This shows the difference in character between Reuben and Judah

Reuben had offered the lives of his two sons not himself

Verses 11-14

¹¹ Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man as a gift, a little balsam and a little honey, labdanum resin and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. ¹² And take double the money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money that was returned in the opening of your sacks; perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³ Take your brother also, and arise, return to the man; ¹⁴ and may God Almighty grant you compassion in the sight of the man, so that he will release to you your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my sons, I am bereaved!”

Take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man as a gift, a little balsam and a little honey, labdanum resin and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Having resolved to let Benjamin make the journey, Jacob moved to the details of the trip

Even though the famine was severe in the land, some products were available

He wanted them to take a gift to the man, return the money they had found in their sacks, and additional money to buy more grain

14 And may God Almighty grant you compassion in the sight of the man

It seems that Jacobs's faith may have suffered a bit since the death of Joseph

But he does ask God that things might go well when they face "the man"

And as for me, if I am bereaved of my sons, I am bereaved!"

Jacob had complained in Genesis 42:36 that, "All these things are against me"

It may have seemed that way at the time but God was doing something that would save him and his family and eventually make Jacob into a great nation

From our perspective it may seem like everything is going wrong at certain times in our lives but the Lord knows how to turn a loss into a gain

Our part is to keep trusting in Him, regardless of how things may appear.

There is no doubt that this can be very difficult to do, but that is the goal.

Verse 15 -21

15 So the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand, and Benjamin; then they set out and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his house steward, "Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make preparations; for the men are to dine with me at noon." 17 So the man did as Joseph said, and brought the men to Joseph's house. 18 Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, so that he may attack us and overpower us, and take us as slaves with our donkeys."

18 Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house;

Do you think their fear was rational?

Why would Joseph have to wait until they got to the house?

He had the entire Egyptian army at his command and he could have given the command at any point

And they said, “It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, so that he may attack us and overpower us, and take us as slaves with our donkeys.

How could they have possibly taken the money that they had paid for the grain?

This would have required an Oceans 11 plot considering they were accused of being spies and were warned not to come back without Benjamin.

It is amazing how a guilty conscience can cloud the minds of men

Verses 19-25

¹⁹ So they approached Joseph’s house steward, and spoke to him at the entrance of the house, ²⁰ and said, “Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food, ²¹ and it happened when we came to the campsite, that we opened our sacks, and behold, each man’s money was in the opening of his sack, our money in full. So we have brought it back in our hand. ²² We have also brought down other money in our hand to buy food; we do not know who put our money in our sacks.” ²³ But he said, “Peace be to you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; your money was in my possession.” Then he brought Simeon out to them. ²⁴ Then the man brought the men into Joseph’s house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed. ²⁵ So they prepared the gift for Joseph’s arrival at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat a meal there.

Your God, and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; your money was in my possession.

In Genesis 42:25 it says Joseph gave orders to put the men’s money back in their bags

But we are not told who he gave that order to

The steward speaking here affirms that he had received their money and their account was paid in full.

It seems obvious that Joseph had a different steward or servant put the money back into their sacks and this steward knew nothing about it.

As far as this steward knew, God had blessed them

This took part of their fears away, but what about Simeon

Then he brought Simeon out to them

Joseph had done exactly what he had promised he would do

The men could finally be at peace about the money and Simeon

Verses 26-30

²⁶ When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the gift which was in their hand, and they bowed down to the ground before him. ²⁷ Then he asked them about their welfare, and said, “Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?” ²⁸ And they said, “Your servant our father is well; he is still alive.” Then they bowed down again in homage. ²⁹ And as he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, he said, “Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?” Then he said, “May God be gracious to you, my son.” ³⁰ Joseph then hurried out, for he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he looked for a place to weep; so he entered his chamber and wept there.

²⁶ When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the gift which was in their hand, and they bowed down to the ground before him.

This is the second time the dreams of Joseph had been fulfilled.

Then they bowed down again in homage

OK, you’re right; I don’t need to say it again

And as he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son

Benjamin was his blood brother

It’s only natural that he would be closer to him than his half brothers

Joseph then hurried out, for he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he looked for a place to weep; so he entered his chamber and wept there.

This had to be a very special moment for Joseph

Verses 31-34

³¹ Then he washed his face and came out; and he controlled himself and said, “Serve the meal.” ³² Then they served him by himself, and Joseph’s brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. ³³ Now they were seated before him, from the firstborn according to his birthright to the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment. ³⁴ Then he took portions to them from his own table, but Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank freely with him.

Then they served him by himself, and Joseph’s brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves

There were three different tables set for the participants in this feast.

Joseph ate by himself, due to his rank and authority. There was another table for the Egyptians and a third for the Hebrews

Because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Genesis 46:34 says “for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.”

In both places it says, it is an abomination, but doesn’t explain why

Did the experience that the Egyptians had with Abraham in Genesis 12 cause this rift between the two groups?

What other experience did the Egyptians have with the Hebrews?

What other shepherds came to Egypt and had a negative experience with them?

And the men looked at one another in astonishment.

It was highly improbable that they would be seated in order of their age when you consider the age difference between the men

See chart 4505

Ch	Person	Event	Age	Year
25	Isaac	Esau and Jacob born	60	1836
25	Abraham	Abraham dies	175	1821
26	Esau	Marries two Hittites	40	1796
25	Ishmael	Ismael dies	137	1773
27 - 28	Isaac	blessing	137	1759
27 - 28	Jacob	Trip to Haran	77	1759
29	Jacob	7 years for Rachel	77-84	1752
29 - 30	Jacob	7 years and 11 sons	84-91	1752 - 1745
30	Jacob	Joseph born	91	1745
31	Jacob	6 years for the flocks	97	1739
32-33		Jacon & Esau reunite	97	1739
35	Jacob	Benjamin born	97	1739
35	Rachel	Dies giving birth	35	1739

Jacob had 11 sons in 7 years (Not a problem when one has 4 wives)

The Egyptians knew Benjamin was the youngest and probably knew Reuben was the oldest since he was the leader during the 1st Journey to Egypt

But guessing the ages of the other 9 men that were between the ages of 46 and 39 would be like guessing a pin number with 9 digits.

They should have also been amazed that they were invited to his house at all

Yes, they proved that they were not spies, but how does that get you an invite to the house of the 2nd most important person in the kingdom of Egypt

³⁴ Then he took portions to them from his own table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs

This was another clue that should have prompted some curiosity from the men
